Presenting

Canadian Women : Femmes Canadiennes

Janis Rapchuk was born in England and moved to Canada when she was a child. She graduated from the University of Saskatchewan with a BSc in Zoology and later earned a Library Diploma from Southern Alberta Institute of Technology where she is on the Advisory Board for the Library and Information Technology program. For the past 12 years Janis has worked as Head Librarian at Field Aviation in Calgary. She joined Canadian Women for Women in Afghanistan in February 2004, after reading an article by Sally Armstrong in Chatelaine magazine. Since CW4Wafghan’s first conference in October 2004, Janis has been passionately interested in rebuilding libraries in Afghanistan. Her trip to Kabul in May 2005 was part of a fact-finding mission to guide the development of a library project and observe some W4W projects. Since that trip Janis has participated in numerous fundraising events and is keen to return to Afghanistan to help set up school libraries, and community resource centres.
