To All National Council of Women of Canada Members

Dear Members of NCWC

As your President, I am pleased to present you with information about our 120th AGM and a Registration Form for it.

Despite the many improvements in women's lives since our founding in 1893, there is still a lot of work to be done for women, their families and their communities. Our AGM is the only opportunity in the year for us all to meet and debate the issues that have arisen at the grass-roots level in our local Councils and decide on the policy which will guide our future work. This is the most important task of an engaged Council. Each Council and Affiliate should try to ensure they are represented at this event and that their views are communicated.

Your Board has worked very hard over this term to ensure the health of National Council; our future success relies upon an engaged membership.

Presidents are invited to dialogue with me at the President’s Breakfast on Friday morning. We want to hear what is happening in your area.

Affiliates, if in these lean financial times it is impossible for your managers to attend, may I suggest you send a member living in the Vancouver area, if only for one day. We need to hear what is happening to you also.

There will be social events and opportunities to have fun together too.

See you in Vancouver!

Denise Mattok
President, NCWC
