

Conveners of Standing Study Committees

Conveners 2017 – 2018

The National Council of Women of Canada plays an important role in putting forward Council's position on established policy. Annually, NCWC prepares a Brief for the Federal Government on established policy. There is continuing monitoring by the National Council, by the Conveners of national Committees, and attention to issues and concerns brought forward.

Currently, these are the Conveners and their committees:

Committee	Convener	Area
