Dear Mayor Valérie Plante,

On behalf of the National Council of Women of Canada (NCWC) I would like to congratulate you on being elected the first woman mayor of Montreal. This is a great accomplishment, which all women share with pride.

In 2018, the year the National Council of Women of Canada (NCWC) celebrates its 125th Anniversary, I hope we will have the honour of meeting. Myself, like a number of our members, reside in Montreal.

Please feel free to call on us if we can be of help in your endeavours to “get Montrealers, moving again.”

Many good wishes,

Sincerely,

The National Council of Women of Canada (NCWC) has been the leading national voice of women for the past 124 years. A plaque has been erected in Allan Gardens in Toronto recognizing the establishment of NCWC as a National Historic Event. NCWC's initiatives have contributed significantly to the establishment of Canada's social welfare system, and the Council continues to work to improve the lives of women, children and society.
