Dear Ms. Cohen-Rose,

As you may already know, Bill C-71, An Act to amend certain law and regulations relating to firearms, was passed on May 28, 2019, at third reading in the Senate.

Although timid, Bill C-71 is a step towards a safer society.

As you will see in my interventions in the Senate and my tweets on Twitter, I believe it is time to replace our complex and obsolete system of classification and registration with a clear ban on all handguns and assault rifles. In our country, firearms are not a necessary tool, except, of course, hunting firearms (without detachable magazine and of capacity fewer than 5 rounds), used by First Nations, hunters, farmers and pest control companies (which must be regulated), and specialized firearms used in international sports competitions (which should remain in clubs and shooting ranges).

Best regards,

Pierre J. Dalphond
